DECLARATION UNDER RULE 131(a)

Dear Sir:

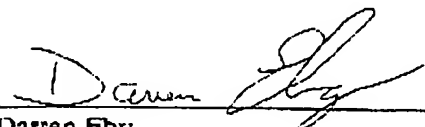

Darren Eby, the inventor and Applicant in the above referenced patent application, declares as follows:

1. That sometime prior to December 6, 2001, the inventor and Applicant conceived of a method of installing a foldaway handrail to a vehicle by mounting the bracket to the vehicle surface after the handrail is assembled to the bracket; and
2. That the invention was reduced to practice sometime prior to December 6, 2001, as evidence by the attached tooling modification quote dated December 6, 2001 and the attached sketch of the handrail bracket of the invention (Exhibit A).

I hereby declare that all statements made herein of my own knowledge are true and that all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true; and further, that the statements are made with the knowledge that willful false statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment or both, as set forth under section 1001, title 18, of the United States Code, and that such willful false statements may jeopardize the validity of the application or any patent issuing thereon.
